

CODE OF CONDUCT

CREATING A BETTER TOMORROW

January 2025

This Code of Conduct will be reviewed every three years unless necessitated by significant changes in legislation, organizational needs, or emerging best practices.

Foreword

Packages Group has built a reputation for conducting its business with integrity, in accordance with the highest standards of ethical behavior and in compliance with the laws and regulations that govern our operations. This reputation is among our most valuable assets and ultimately depends upon the individual actions of each of our employees.

Packages Group's Code of Conduct has been prepared to assist each of us in our efforts to not only maintain but also enhance this reputation. It provides guidance for business conduct in several areas and refers to more detailed corporate policies for further direction.

The adherence of all employees to the highest standards of integrity and ethical behavior is mandatory and benefits all stakeholders, which include customers, communities, shareholders and ourselves.

All Group Companies ensure compliance with the Code of Conduct by providing appropriate information, preventive measures, and control tools and ensuring transparency in all transactions and behaviors by taking corrective measures, if and as required.

The Packages Code of Conduct applies to all Packages Group companies, employees, business partners, suppliers, vendors, financial advisers, agents, affiliates, and others who act for us within all sectors, regions, areas, and functions. As per the regulatory guidelines, there is a separate document outlining the Code of Conduct for external directors of the Group.

Equal Opportunity Employer:

Packages Group recognizes the value of striving for an equal opportunity, equal treatment, and a dynamic environment where diversity is valued as a source of enrichment and opportunity. All phases of the employment relationship – including recruitment, hiring, training, promotion, compensation, benefits, transfers, layoffs, and leaves of absence will be carried out by all managers without regard to race, color, religion, gender, age, ethnicity, national origin, or disability.

Abuse of Alcohol or Drugs and Gambling:

All employees shall personally contribute to promoting and maintaining a climate of common respect in the workplace. Particular attention should be paid to respecting the feelings of others.

No employee in the Packages Group shall work under the effect of alcohol or drugs, or substances with similar effects.

It is strictly prohibited to:

- Hold, consume, offer, or give alcohol or drugs for any reason at work or in the workplace.
- Smoke in areas where smoking is not allowed.
- Engage in gambling or betting within the workplace.

Workplace Harassment:

We believe that it is the right of every employee at Packages Group to work in a dignified environment. To achieve this and to promote a harmonized work culture, we will provide equal opportunities for development and growth regardless of gender, race, color, creed, or religion.

'Harassment' means any unwelcome sexual advance, request for sexual favors or other verbal or written communication or physical conduct of a sexual nature, or sexually demeaning attitudes, causing interference with work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment, or an attempt to punish the complainant for refusal to comply with such a request or when such behavior is made a condition for employment. Its scope covers both male and female employees.

There are three significant manifestations of harassment in the work environment:

a) Abuse of authority:

A demand by a person in authority, such as a supervisor, for sexual favors in order for the complainant to keep or obtain certain job benefits, whether it is a wage increase, a promotion, a training opportunity, a transfer, or the job itself.

b) Creating a hostile environment:

Any unwelcome sexual advance, request for sexual favors, or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature, interferes with an individual's work performance or creates an intimidating, hostile, abusive, or offensive work environment. The typical "hostile environment" claim generally requires a finding of a pattern of offensive conduct; however, in cases where the harassment is particularly severe, such as in cases involving physical contact, a single offensive incident will constitute a violation.

c) Retaliation:

The refusal to grant a sexual favor can result in retaliation, which may include limiting the employee's options for future promotions or training, distorting the evaluation reports, generating gossip against the employee, or other ways of limiting access to their rights. Such behavior is also a part of the harassment.

Process of Filing a Complaint:

1. The employee (the victim) shall raise a complaint in accordance with the Anti-Harassment Policy of the respective group company. The complainant may wish to discuss the case with the immediate supervisor for guidance in this regard.

2. The Chief Anti-Harassment Officer (CAHO), usually the HR Head of the respective company, will study the complaint in detail and determine if the complaint comes under the purview of the Anti-Harassment Policy. If the complaint is outside the purview of the Anti-Harassment Policy, the complainant would be informed accordingly by giving reason(s). In case the complaint is found to be under the purview of the Anti-Harassment Policy, the CAHO will then forward the complaint to the Special Inquiry Committee established for this purpose. During this course, the CAHO may contact the complainant by phone or may require the complainant to meet in person to clarify the complaint details.

3. To prevent misuse of this policy, the basic requirement for the implementation of its clauses and formal undertaking of an inquiry, the following two prerequisites must be met:

- Allegations must be supported by at least one witness, or if no witness is available, by written, recorded, pictorial, or circumstantial evidence.
- The complainant shall declare and disclose their full name and correct identity at the time of filing the complaint, which will be kept confidential at all times.
- Anonymous or conditional complaints will not be processed.
- All complaints shall be reported and investigated in accordance with this policy and any other applicable laws and regulations on Harassment.
- Furthermore, harassment can occur in a variety of circumstances, such as:
 - Advances, propositions, suggestions, or pressure for social activities outside of work, where it has been made clear that these are unwelcome.
 - Conduct which is discriminatory, intimidating, physically or verbally abusive, including the display of explicit material, humour or comments of a sexual or racial nature or related to a person's abilities or disabilities, whether directed specifically at any particular individual or not.
 - Spreading malicious rumours or insulting someone by word or behaviour on the grounds of age, race, gender, or disability.
 - Unfair treatment or misuse of power and position.
 - Making threats or comments about job security without a foundation.

For further details, please refer to the anti-harassment policy.

Email, Computers, and Network Security:

- Protection of the Company's assets and proprietary information.
- All employees must follow the Group's policy to limit internet use to official business purposes during work hours.
- All employees using the Company's Internet connection and e-mail accounts are acting as representatives of Packages and must conduct themselves professionally to avoid damaging the Company's reputation.

The introduction of viruses or malicious tampering with any computer system is expressly prohibited.

No employee shall visit illegal or unethical sites or distribute illegal or unethical material. Obscene, derogatory, or racially intolerant websites and material are also forbidden.

Activities that compromise network security are strictly forbidden. The disclosure of system IDs, passwords, or information that could compromise or breach our network security is not allowed. Employees shall not place Company material, such as copyrighted software or internal correspondence, on any publicly accessible Internet computer without proper permission.

The Company reserves the right to inspect the computer system of any employee of Packages Group for violations of this policy.

Packages Group's physical and intangible assets, as well as its proprietary information, are the key to the Packages Group's success. They should be used only to achieve business goals and should be protected to preserve their value. Any use of the Group Company's assets or proprietary information by any employee in other business or personal activities is forbidden. All Group Company assets and proprietary information must be returned to the Group Company on cessation of employment.

Employees may have access to significant proprietary or confidential information (in written, electronic, or other formats as part of their jobs). It should not be disclosed to anyone outside Packages Group without the express permission of their supervisor.

It is the duty of every employee to protect, use, and operate all the corporate assets (all movable and immovable assets) with the utmost care, due diligence, and honesty. If any employee observes misuse or mishandling of corporate assets by other employees/individuals, the matter should be immediately reported to the management of the respective Group Company.

All Group employees are responsible for the security and proper use of the Company's physical and intangible assets under their control and of third-party assets in their care.
